PART I: GENERAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 1

BASIC PROVISIONS

1.1 TITLE

This planning system shall be known as the “Matatiele Land Use Management System” (LUMS) Scheme, hereinafter referred to as the Scheme.

1.2 PURPOSE

The purpose of this Scheme is to promote the co-ordinated and harmonious development of the Matatiele municipal area in such a way as will most effectively tend to promote health, safety, order, amenity convenience and general welfare, as well as efficiency and economy in the process of development, and the improvement of communications. In furtherance of this purpose, the Matatiele municipality desires to achieve a pattern and distribution of land uses which generally:

- 1.2.1 Retain and enhance established residential neighbourhoods, industrial districts, open space and amenities.
- 1.2.2 Allow for flexibility and the introduction of compatible uses in residential neighbourhoods.
- 1.2.3 Allow for flexibility in the commercial zone by permitting a combination of service industrial and commercial uses and retaining existing residential uses.
- 1.2.4 Take cognisance of the nature of the activities and public transport needs in relation to Matatiele's proximity to a large rural hinterland as well as its linkages with Lesotho and the Eastern Cape.
- 1.2.5 Maintain and enhance unique environmental resources.
- 1.2.6 Promote the development and expansion of the varied tourism potential of the area.
- 1.2.7 Establish Matatiele, as a unique and distinctive place in KwaZulu-Natal with varied opportunities and activities, a stable environment for residences and commercial enterprises, expansion of the job market and as a gateway to the Province.

1.3 SCHEME AREA

The area to which this Scheme applies consists of the portion area of land under the jurisdiction of the Matatiele Municipality, being the existing towns of Matatiele, Cedarville and Maluti as indicated on the Zoning Maps as the area lying within the Scheme Boundary.

1.4 EFFECTIVE DATE

The effective date is the date of approval by the Minister of the resolution of the Local Authority to prepare a scheme.

1.5 PLANNING AUTHORITY

The Council of the Matatiele Municipality, hereinafter referred to as the Local Authority, shall be the authority, responsible for enforcing and carrying into effect the provisions of the Scheme.

1.6 ZONING MAPS

The Scheme Maps comprises the following drawing Numbers as amended from time to time.

- 1.6.1 Matatiele (Greater Area): Drawing No: MATAT SCHEME, MAT 1085, SHEET 1 OF 3
- 1.6.2 Matatiele (Core Area) : Drawing No: MATAT SCHEME, MAT 1085, SHEET 2 OF 3
- 1.6.3 Cedarville: Drawing No: MATAT SCHEME, MAT 1085, SHEET 3 OF 3
- 1.6.4 Maluti Drawing No: MATAT SCHEME, MAT 1085 SHEET 4

1.7 THE GENERAL PURPOSE, CONTENT AND LEGAL STATUS OF A SCHEME

Any proposal or application to develop or use land and /or buildings within a Local Authority area must have regard for the provisions of the Scheme and for the provisions of the Integrated Development Plan. The latter Plan is a Policy document accompanied by a map or plan which sets out goals for a town or city, based on its role, character and its expected or planned growth, and provides policy and strategy for achieving those goals. Therefore, such a Plan acts as a further guide in assessing the appropriateness of the intended development or use in question.

However, the main planning and development regulation instrument is undoubtedly the Scheme.

The general purpose of this section is to provide a context within which land and/or buildings may be used or developed in terms of the provisions of a Scheme, and then to examine in some detail the content of the Scheme.

In view of the wide range and scope of a LUMS it could be argued that the preparation of a Scheme and its subsequent administration is the single most important management function of a Local Authority.

1.8 MAIN COMPONENTS OF A SCHEME

The legal provisions of the Scheme comprise two main components which operate in tandem, namely:

- (i) a Zoning Map depicting “zoning”, and
- (ii) the Scheme text containing Regulations.

The Zoning map is prepared on a cadastral base that depicts all registered sub-divisions of land and existing roads on which is overlaid the nature and extent of each use zone and the reservation of all land for public purposes such as new roads, road closures and widenings and open space.

In this form the Zoning map forms a dual purpose, i.e. firstly, it enables identification of any erf or subdivision of land in terms of its physical relationship with its surroundings, including matters that might have a direct effect on the erf or subdivision such as street widening or the allocation of adjoining land for shopping or other purposes.

The second role of the Zoning map is as a property zoning key for the application of the regulations. It should be noted however that the map does not record existing land usage and development, although in many cases, zonings and land reservations might accurately reflect such conditions. For example, there is no distinction, where land is reserved for public open space, between a developed park and land that still has to be acquired and developed for such purpose. Equally, an existing shop might be located within a residential zone although the use Shop is a precluded use in that zone, which would be the case for a pre-scheme, non-conforming existing use.

The demarcation and zoning of areas of land for particular use purposes, has become the most significant and debated feature. In practice, zoning attempts to achieve its purpose by the physical separation of various activities and the grouping of compatible activities within a specific zone. In this latter regard, zoning employs a cascade or hierarchical principle in terms of which zoning for a certain order of use - for example; high density residential development - will usually permit a variety of lower order uses such as - medium density and low density residential developments. Conversely, zoning that permits low density residential developments may not permit medium or high residential developments and related activities such as launderette and residential building.

It may therefore be observed that since zoning can permit a range of uses or intensities of use, it affords a degree of flexibility to the extent of what might be deemed desirable at some future time. As a result, zoning should be treated with caution as a basis for accurately assessing the magnitude of future development or the development potential of an area.

In order to cater for this future development potential within a zone, these LUMS Scheme Clauses permit a degree of flexibility via 3 categories of provisions. These provisions specify the usage and development of land and buildings, within each zone, according to those that are:

- * Expressly permissible (i.e. a free entry right)
- * Expressly prohibited
- * Conditionally permitted by "Special Consent" of the Local Authority.

1.9 TYPES OF SCHEME APPLICATIONS

In light of the above, a person or entity wishing to initiate a development or use for which the regulations require application to be made, is faced with a number of alternatives:

- (i) In the case where the intended use is expressly permissible (a "Free Entry" right) there is clearly no need for an application. It remains for the developer to prepare and submit the necessary building plans (which comply with the building regulations) to the authority concerned. (See Section 10.5).
- (ii) With reference to Annexure A, where the desired use is expressly prohibited the applicant must prepare and submit an application to amend the Scheme by rezoning the property in question to a zone which expressly permits the use in question. In making such an application, the applicant is required to demonstrate, to the Local Authority's satisfaction, that the proposed amendment is necessary, and desirable in the public's interest. The applicant and any objector shall have the right of appeal against any decision or condition set in terms of that decision to grant or refuse an application.

- (iii) With reference to Annexure B, in the third category, namely, conditionally permitted uses, which may be permitted with the Special Consent of the Local Authority, the applicant is required to demonstrate the appropriateness of the proposed use and, in particular, that the proposed use or development will not interfere with the amenities of the neighbourhood.

On reaching a decision, the opportunity to appeal to, is then provided to the applicant if the Local Authority refuses to grant its consent, or to any objector to the application if the Local Authority approves the application.

In either case, the aggrieved party may appeal to the Minister who would consider the facts and either uphold or dismiss the appeal.

- (iv) With reference to Annexure C, the Council shall have the right to consider subdivision applications.

CHAPTER 3

RESERVATION AND ZONING OF LAND

3.1 CONTEXT

- 3.1.1 An important goal of this document is that it should state its purpose and procedures in a clear, readily comprehensible manner. To this end this LUMS Scheme sets out to explain the underlying purpose for and basis of the terminology used to describe land use zones.
- 3.1.2 A Land Use Zone is a portion of land located within the Local Authority area in terms of which certain uses of land, buildings and structures are imposed and regulations pertaining to their use and development are specified.
- 3.1.3 Non planners often confuse a land use zone with the land use, that may or may not be permitted therein. This confusion is compounded when either the same, or similar sounding names are used to describe both a zone and the land use permitted therein.
- 3.1.4 The nature, extent and location of Reservations of Land shall be as set out in the Zoning Map and the purposes for which Reserved Land may be used shall be as set out in Table 3.
- 3.1.4.1 Except with the authority of the Council granted for temporary uses at the Council's pleasure and subject to no increased claims for compensation, Reserved Land shall not be used for any purpose which would conflict with the purpose for which it has been reserved. Provided that where pedestrian ways or pedestrian lanes are reserved on the Scheme Map, the Council may consider a consent application for the re-positioning of such pedestrian ways or lanes on the erf.
- 3.1.4.2 Where any Reserved Land is in the Council's ownership or otherwise under the control of the Council, the Council may undertake thereon works, the erection of buildings or development necessary for or incidental to the purpose for which the land is reserved.
- 3.1.4.3 Reserved land may continue to be used for the purpose for which it was used on the effective date. Provided that where the use conflicts with the purpose for which the land is reserved, it shall not be extended or rebuilt, other than as provided for in Clause 3.1.4.1.
- 3.1.4.4 The Local Authority may grant its authority with relevant conditions for the temporary use of Reserved Land where it is satisfied that such use will not interfere with the amenities of the neighbourhood in which such Reserved Land is situated. Such use shall only be approved subject to no increased claims for compensation and a termination date shall be specified or a means negotiated whereby the local authority could call for the temporary use to cease within a given period. The Local Authority shall be satisfied that the applicant or lessee, as the case may be, has legitimate claim for applying for or being granted such use. The Local Authority may call upon the applicant, or its officials to consult the surrounding neighbours or it may call on the applicant to apply for Special Consent. If it is subsequently found that there is, in fact, an interference with the amenities of the neighbourhood or when it becomes apparent that the land is needed for the purposes for which it is reserved, the Local Authority may impose further conditions or call for the temporary use to cease.

3.1.4.5 Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the fencing of land in conformity with the bylaws.

3.1.4.6 For any land which is reserved in favour of the Local Authority or other public authority the Scheme shall at all times indicate the use or uses to which the land may be put in the event of such reservation being rescinded.

3.1.5 In respect of areas shown as Conservation (Protected Land, Recreational or Nature Reserve) on the Zoning Map, the prime consideration is the protection of flora and fauna in these indigenous botanical communities and the protection of water courses. No land use or development of any nature or extent may be undertaken, nor developed on any portion of these reservations or zones be permitted, until the proposed land use or development has been subject to proper assessment in terms of the Integrated Environmental Management (IEM) process as contemplated in terms of the National Environmental Management Act.

3.2 DECLARING OR CLOSING OF STREETS

All proposed streets and roads shown on the Zoning Map, and the widening of existing streets and roads shown on the Zoning Map are to be new streets and roads, and shall become effective at dates to be determined. All streets and roads shown as road closures on the Zoning Map are to be closed at dates to be determined.

PART 2 : LAND USE ZONES

CHAPTER 4

RESIDENTIAL ZONES

4.1 GENERAL PURPOSE

The general purpose of this section is to achieve the following:

- 4.1.1 Reserve neighbourhood areas for residential living with a variety of dwelling unit densities and appropriate compatible uses. This should be consistent with the Integrated Development Plan (IDP) and appropriate standards of public health, safety, welfare and aesthetics.
- 4.1.2 Ensure adequate light, air, privacy, and open space for each dwelling.
- 4.1.3 Minimize traffic congestion and avoid the overloading of public services and utilities.
- 4.1.4 Protect residential neighbourhoods from excessive noise, illumination, unsightliness, odour, smoke and other objectionable influences.
- 4.1.5 Facilitate the provision of public improvements and service requirements commensurate with the population densities of each zone.
- 4.1.6 Provide land to accommodate housing units which meet the diverse economic and social needs of the residents; locating development to achieve the following:
 - (i) Retain the scale and character of existing residential neighbourhoods;
 - (ii) facilitate the upgrade of declining residential neighbourhoods; and
 - (iii) Allow expansion into vacant and low-intensity use lands within infrastructure and environmental constraints and in terms of the goals, objectives and strategies of the IDP.
- 4.1.7 Protect the amenity and the integrity of the various residential neighbourhoods and zones from undesirable land uses and activities.
- 4.1.8 Promote the development of the various residential zones in terms of the specific purposes detailed in Section 4.2.
- 4.1.9 Reference should be made to Annexures H and I.

Where consent for such relaxation is given, it shall be a condition that no buildings which are erected forward of the prescribed building line of 7,5 metres shall be permitted nearer than 4,5 metres to the side boundary of the erf adjoining.

- (3) For the purpose of this section, "power" does not include hand or foot power used to operate any mechanical appliance or power derived from machinery that is rated to develop not more than 0,7457 kw machine power.

ANNEXURE FPOLICY IN REGARD TO PLANNING STANDARDS FOR CONTROL OF TRAFFIC-GENERATING SITES

- (1) The term "road" shall mean for the purpose of this policy, a way intended, prepared, or used for foot-passengers, riders and vehicles to travel on, inclusive of the full extent of its width notwithstanding that only a portion thereof may be in actual use for traffic purposes, and shall include a street. It shall not include an alley, land or passage used solely by foot-passengers.

The terms "traffic generator" or "traffic-generating site" shall mean a site, business or activity whereon, or by reason whereof, a larger number of motor vehicles are required to leave or enter a public street or roadway, and shall include, but not be confined to, sites whereon petrol filling stations, parking garages, parking lots, churches, sports stadia, blocks of flats or shopping centres are established.

- (2) No vehicular entrance to, or exit from, a traffic generator should be permitted in the immediate vicinity of a road intersection, junction or interchange. In the case of an intersection or junction at grade, under rural conditions the distance from such entrance or exit to any intersection measured parallel to the direction of travel along the road to which entrance or from which exit is afforded should not be less than 150 metres. Under urban conditions this distance may be reduced, in which case the desirable minimum should be 20 metres from an intersection with a minor street or 60 metres from an intersection with a major street. No such entrance or exit should be permitted within a distance of 150 metres from the limits of an interchange, which limits should be determined by the road authority. Any unavoidable reduction of these minimum distances should be regarded as justified only by exceptional circumstances, and as requiring safeguards such as the imposition and enforcement of special speed limits, acceleration and deceleration lanes or other traffic controls.
- (3) Direct vehicular or pedestrian entrance to or exit from a traffic generator, from or to important Provincial main roads should not be permitted, nor should such entrance or exit be permitted from or to freeways, expressways or heavily-trafficked through arterial main roads in urban areas.
- (4) No commercial premises with direct access to a flanking service road should be permitted unless direct pedestrian access from the main carriageway to such service road has been rendered impracticable.
- (5) No traffic generator should be permitted upon any site which, by reason of its proximity to and situation in relation to schools, churches, cinemas, bus depots, railway stations, major recreation grounds, beaches or other similar places which generate heavy pedestrian movements at certain times, is likely to create conflict between the vehicular traffic and the pedestrian traffic.

- (6) In considering applications for the establishment of petrol filling stations the need within the area of such stations having regard to the location of other existing stations and the existing and/or contemplated development of the area should be taken into account. Any argument, based on the solo-site system, that all brands of petrol should be available within any particular area should not be taken into account.
- (7) The following standards should be adopted in considering the establishment of traffic generators:
- (a) Where separate entrance and exit are provided they should be placed at or near either end of a frontage of not less than 36 metres. The site should be of sufficient depth for the whole activity to be carried on clear of the street, and should in no case be less than 15 metres in depth. It should be in such area and so laid out that a waiting area is provided near the entrance large enough to accommodate vehicles awaiting service so that these do not queue in the public road.
 - (b) The minimum sight distance along the road should be 120 metres. Sight distance shall be measured from the entrance or exit as the case may be, height of eye being 1,37 metres, to an object 1,37 metres high.
 - (c) No traffic generator should be permitted with entrance from or exit to a street whose gradient is steeper than 1 in 8, and no access ramp should be steeper than 1 in 10.
 - (d) Outside an urban area buildings should be sited at least 36 metres from the nearest point of the road reserve of any main road.
 - (e) Pump islands in petrol filling stations should not be less than 5 metres from the property boundary.

ANNEXURE GPOLICY WITH REGARD TO ADMISSION OF RETAIL USES INTO INDUSTRIAL ZONES

1. Certain categories of retail outlets should be admitted to industrial zones by special consent and the remaining categories only by rezoning.
 2. The categories of retail outlets which should be admitted to industrial zones by special consent are as follows:
 - (a) Low order convenience goods and service shops catering for the immediate day-to-day needs of people working within the industrial area concerned; provided that the total floor area of any shop or contiguous set of shops (including a set of shops separated by a road or pedestrian route) should in no case exceed 300 m².
 - (b) Shops which are incompatible with the vast majority of the types of shops normally found in commercial zones but which fit in well in industrial areas (e.g. builders' supplies dealers; firms dealing in wire, gates and fences; timber merchants; firms dealing in agricultural implements).
 - (c) Shops which deal largely with other firms normally located in industrial areas such as service stations, specialist industrial concerns in the motor trade (like panel beaters and auto electrical specialists), builders and engineering firms (e.g. paint shops; firms dealing in engineering supplies; motor spares shops).
 - (d) Shops which -
 - (i) are situated on the same sites as the industrial activities concerned;
 - (ii) retail only products of the industrial concerns to which they relate or directly associated products;
 - (iii) have floor areas not exceeding 10 per cent of the total floor area of all buildings on the site or 150 m² whichever is the lesser;
- provided that there shall be only one shop for each industrial undertaking on the site.

ANNEXURE HPOLICY WITH REGARD TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF PHYSICALLY DIFFICULT RESIDENTIAL SITES

The development of land in the Residential zones, either by sub-division or for the Medium Density Housing purposes, as the case may be, shall be considered in the light of the following provisions:

1. No subdivision of land should be permitted
 - a) where 65% or more, of the area of the proposed sub-division is steeper than 1:3; and
 - b) where the land is in the opinion of the local authority otherwise affected by virtue of soil instability, liability to flooding, inaccessibility or topography;

unless the local authority is of the opinion that sufficient remaining area exists for development in terms of the zoning of the land, including the provision of adequate vehicular access on the proposed subdivision.
2. The calculation of the number of Medium Density Housing units which may be erected on a Medium Density Housing site, as well as the Coverage calculation shall be based on the net developable area of the site and shall be determined by deducting from the surveyed lot area:
 - a) all areas of the site which are steeper than 1:3; and
 - b) all areas of the site which, in the opinion of the local authority are otherwise undevelopable by virtue of any physical or topographical constraint such as soil instability, liability to flooding, inaccessibility or topography.

ANNEXURE IAPPLICATION PROCEDURE, DESIGN AND LAYOUT OF MEDIUM DENSITY HOUSING DEVELOPMENT:

1. Any person wishing to develop a site for Medium Density Housing shall apply to the local authority for approval in principle, and attach to the application a layout plan showing in outline, contours, proposed buildings, roads, access points and common open space areas.
2. The approval in principle having been granted, the applicant shall subsequently submit to the local authority for its approval:

a layout plan or plans showing:

- (i) the position, dimensions and materials to be used in the construction of all roads, drive-ways, parking areas, squares and pedestrian access ways, if any;

the boundaries of all dwelling unit curtilages, private open areas and common open spaces;

the position, nature, extent and levels of all proposed and existing buildings on the site and adjoining sites;

the proposed landscaping of the site;

the proposed public open space if any;

the position and nature of recreation facilities, if any;

the position and extent of all utility areas.
- (ii) a set of sketch drawings prepared by an architect at a scale of 1 : 100 showing the plans, sections and elevation of each type of structure within the proposed development and particulars of the materials and colours to be used for the exterior wall finishes and roof or roofs; together with both front and rear elevations of each typical group of dwelling units at a scale of 1 : 100 or 1 : 200.
- (iii) a table indicating:

the total area of the site;

the total number of dwelling units

the total floor area;

the total number of car parking spaces provided for visitors and for residents;

the extent of the usable common land, the smallest private open area, the smallest dwelling unit curtilage and the smallest utility area;

the areas of public open space and other public uses where applicable;

and

- (iv) any other documents which the local authority may reasonably require.

3. (i) The following minimum areas per dwelling unit shall apply to a Medium Density Housing site:

Private Open Area	-	30 m ²
Usable Common Open Space	-	50 m ²
Utility Area	-	15 m ²

- (ii) The minimum floor area of a garage or carport shall be 20 m².

- (i) Where in the opinion of the local authority a road within a Medium Density Housing site should serve the public, the local authority may require the road to be registered as a public road, provided that for the purpose of bulk and coverage calculation, the area of the public road shall be included in the gross site area.

- (ii) The minimum width of a road carriageway within a Medium Density Housing site shall be 3 metres where the carriageway is one-way and 5 metres where the carriageway is two-way.

- (iii) Situated at the end of every cul-de-sac there shall be provided turning space to the satisfaction of the local authority.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Clauses 10.13 and Table 1, the individual dwelling unit curtilages which in this event shall not be less than 200 m² in extent, may be transferred in freehold or registered leasehold title. In the event of the different dwelling unit curtilages being so transferred, the local authority shall require that :-

- (a) the common land shall be owned exclusively by the freehold or registered leasehold owners of the dwelling units in co-ownership; and no co-owners shall be entitled to require the partition of the common land according to the proportion of his share;
- (ii) a Home Owners' Association shall be established. Such Association shall administer and maintain the common land, control the external appearance of buildings within the Medium Density Housing site and deal with any other matter pertaining to the Medium Density Housing site which is of common interest to its members. The affairs of the Association shall be regulated by a memorandum and Articles of Association. The Memorandum and Articles of Association shall have been submitted to the local authority who shall have certified that it has no objection to these documents;
- (iii) no dwelling unit curtilage within the Medium Density Housing site or within any portion of the site specified by the local authority shall be transferred or separately registered before the whole Medium Density Housing site or the specified portion of the Medium Density Housing site within which the curtilage is situated has been developed to the satisfaction of the local authority.

- (i) Notwithstanding the requirements in 1. and 2. above wherever it is intended to develop a site for Medium Density Housing in a Residential only zone, the special consent of the local authority shall first be obtained,
- (ii) In the Residential only zone the maximum number of dwelling units which may be established on a Medium Density Housing site shall be obtained by dividing the registered surveyed area of the property concerned by the appropriate minimum lot area per dwelling house as specified in Table 1 and raised to the next whole number.
